Harbor Point Welcomes Fortina Pizza

Newest outpost of Armonk, NY's wood fire Italian kitchen opens at 120 Washington Boulevard in Stamford's Harbor Point

STAMFORD, CT – November 23, 2015 – Building and Land Technology (BLT) today welcomed the newest outpost of Fortina to its Harbor Point development. The popular wood fire Italian kitchen recently opened its third location at 120 Washington Boulevard.

Harbor Point's Fortina has a similar menu to the restaurant's other two locations in Armonk and Rye Brook—featuring mouthwatering wood fire-grilled pizzas along with pastas, meatball sandwiches, decadent desserts and more.

“We're thrilled to welcome Fortina to Harbor Point,” said Ted Ferrarone, COO of Harbor Point. “This is yet another amenity for residents and office tenants. In addition, it furthers our plans to transform the area into a true 24/7 live-work-play environment.”

Commented Fortina co-owner John Nealon, “Harbor Point is a unique location for us and we're happy to be open after completing the renovation of our space there. We're just a stone's throw from the waterfront, and easily accessible for commuters, residents and visitors to the Harbor Point area. Our new restaurant features a unique and attractive space that features 28-foot high ceilings, a roof deck and industrial lighting. We can't wait for Stamford and the surrounding areas to share in our excitement, our great food, and get to know us.”

Fortina's Harbor Point location is open for lunch Monday through Friday from 12 to 2:30 p.m., for dinner every day from 5 p.m. on and for brunch on Sundays from 12 to 2:30 p.m.
